DESCRIPTION OF THE ASSESSMENT SCALE

The indicator of the assessment of the outcomes of the Program is formed on the basis of combining the current and interim certification of the student.

The rating indicator for each discipline is expressed as a percentage, which shows the level of a student's knowledge.

Current certification. A 100-point grading system is used. The evaluation of the student's work during the semester is carried out by the teacher in accordance with the system of evaluation of academic achievements developed by him in teaching this discipline.

In the programs of subjects and practices, the types of current certification, the planned results of control measures and criteria for evaluating academic achievements are fixed.

During the semester, the teacher conducts at least 3 assessments to evaluate the student's performance. If attendance of classes in a discipline is included in the rating, then this indicator is no more than 20% of the maximum number of points in the discipline.

Interim certification. A 5-point grading system is used. The evaluation of the student's work at the end of the subject (part of the subject) is carried out by the teacher in accordance with the system developed by him for evaluating the student's achievements. Interim certification is also carried out at the end of the formation of competencies.

The procedure for transferring the rating provided by the assessment system to a five-point gradingscale.
